

Improving lives THROUGH
supports and services
THAT FOSTER self-determination.

5/2/18

Partnerships and Business-Led Coalitions

Cornell University's Yang-Tan Institute on Employment and Disability will be hosting a webinar Tuesday, May 8th from 1:00pm to 2:30pm CST on the importance of developing and sustaining business led community partnerships. This webinar will identify some of the characteristics of effective partnerships with employers for employment service professionals. In addition, you will hear from the Mid-Missouri Business Leadership Network and the Columbia Employment Consortium, real-life examples of a successful business-led coalition and a collaborative provider group supporting community level engagement in Missouri.

Presenters: Jeffrey Tamburo, Training & Organizational Development Specialist, Cornell University, Kat Cunningham, Moresource, Inc & The Mid-Missouri Business Leadership Network and Jessica Mahon, ACT & the Columbia Employment Consortium, Columbia, Missouri. To register for this no-cost training opportunity, please visit the following link: Business-Led Coalitions

www.dmh.mo.gov/dd
573-751-4054

MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH