President's Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities (PCPID) Releases Report on Direct Support Workforce

The President's Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities (PCPID) has released its 2017 report, "America's Direct Support Workforce Crisis: Effects on People with Intellectual Disabilities, Families, Communities and the U.S. Economy."

Direct support professionals (DSPs) provide services and supports that empower people with intellectual disabilities to live in the community.

The report explores:

- How these issues affect individuals, families, and human services systems
- The factors that contribute to these issues
- Promising practices to strengthen the direct support workforce
