

Improving lives THROUGH supports and services
THAT FOSTER self-determination.

8/27/20

Trauma-Informed Considerations Related to Learners in Special Education

Alive and Well Communities is providing training and coaching opportunities in partnership with the Missouri Developmental Disabilities Council and the Missouri Department of Mental Health. This three-part training is focused on increasing capacity to support students with developmental and intellectual disabilities through a trauma-informed approach.

Training includes two 90-minute sessions and eight hours of individualized coaching and consultation to identify needs for improvement and gathering data to measure impact.

Contact Rhonda Adams at radams@awcommunities.org with questions.

Click to Register.

www.dmh.mo.gov/dd
573-751-4054

MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH