Upcoming Webinar

National Disability Employment Awareness Month
Employment in Action – A Missouri Conversation

October 29, 2020
3:00 p.m.

In celebration of October being National Disability Employment Awareness Month, employment success stories will be spotlighted in this panel discussion to include individuals sharing their journey, support systems who built the opportunity, and model employers who valued inclusive workplaces. The webinar will provide an opportunity to learn best case strategies and supporting individuals with achieving their employment outcomes.

Facilitated by Duane Shumate – State Coordinator of Employment and Community Engagement

Target Audience: Individuals, families, support coordinators and service providers
