Upcoming Webinar

Champions of Employment: Finding Solutions during the COVID-19 Pandemic

February 10, 2021

1:30 p.m.

The Division of Developmental Disabilities is hosting a series of monthly webinars designed to engage Support Coordinators in thought-provoking exercises to help propel employment opportunities for individuals receiving services. These monthly webinars are held the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 1:30-2:30.

This month's webinar focuses on strategies and resources that have been successful in getting individuals to explore employment during the pandemic. TCM providers will share how they have had success in getting people interested in pursuing employment options during this past year.

Presenters: Sandy Keyser and Steven Taylor, Employment First Specialists with the Division of Developmental Disabilities

Targeted Audience: Support Coordinators and other interested individuals
