March is Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month

Missouri Developmental Disabilities Council (MODDC)

The Missouri Developmental Disabilities Council (MODDC) is a federally funded, 23-member, consumer driven council appointed by the Governor. The Council is mandated to assure that individuals with developmental disabilities and their families participate in the design of and have access to needed community services, individualized supports, and other forms of assistance that promote self-determination, independence, productivity, and integration in all aspects of community life. For more information about the MODDC and the work being done on behalf of people with developmental disabilities in Missouri, visit the MODDC website or follow them on Facebook.
