Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Webinar: Universal Design in Mental Health for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities

cosponsored by the Association of University Centers on Disabilities Mental Health Special Interest Group

August 17, 2021, 1:00 pm

(An optional Q&A Session will be held from 2:00 – 2:30 pm for participants)

Universal design is an approach for inclusive access that can enhance ability to serve people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. A universal design approach ensures there are a variety of means for making things accessible and usable for everyone. This webinar will provide an overview of universal design, as well as recommendations and practical tips for using a universal design framework in a therapeutic setting.

Presenters:

- Elaine Eisenbaum, PhD, MSW, Human Development Institute, University of Kentucky
- Patti Singleton, Human Development Institute, University of Kentucky
- Jason Jones, Human Development Institute, University of Kentucky
