Webinar: Resources and Programs for Blind and People with Low Vision

Thursday, May 26
2:00 - 3:00

Join this webinar to hear from the National Federation of the Blind (NFB), the nation's largest and oldest organization of blind Americans with affiliates in all fifty states plus the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The NFB offers information, community, programs, and resources to people who are blind and those losing vision, including older adults. Learn about the types of inquiries that individuals reach out for help with; programs and resources through NFB; and examples of solutions for everyday living in the community.

Presenters:

- Danielle McCann, Social Media Coordinator, National Federation of the Blind
- Norma Crosby, President of the National Federation of the Blind of Texas and Secretary of the National Federation of the Blind Executive Board
- Sandy Halverson, Coordinator of the Silver Bells Seniors Program in Virginia
