New Easy Readers Available

The Division of Developmental Disabilities has five new Easy Reader booklets available. Easy Readers provide information in a clear and easy-to-understand format that benefits people of different age groups with various reading levels or needs. Easy Readers present information along with supporting illustrations or graphics and use plain language to help increase the reader's ability to understand the material.

The new Easy Reader topics include:

- Housemates and You
- What You Need to Know About Choosing a Home
- What You Need to Know About Self-Directing Your Supports
- Surveys and You: Your Voice Matters
- Waivers and You

These new Easy Readers can be found on the Division's Self-Advocacy webpage.
