Missouri LEND/UCEDD podcast

The Accessible podcast is a partnership between the Missouri LEND (Leadership Education in Neurodevelopment and related Disabilities) at the University of Missouri Thompson Center and the Missouri UCEDD (University Centers for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities) at the University of Missouri Kansas City Institute of Human Development. Hosts of Accessible interview state and national leaders who work in the developmental disabilities field. Interviewees share how they entered their respective fields, talk about their current roles and organizations, and share their takes on the future of the world of disabilities.

Season 2 is now available. The two new episodes include:

- Family Centered Autism Treatment with Dr. Rose O'Donnell
- Pathways to Inclusion with Derrick Willis

New episodes are posted every two weeks.
