

Employment First Missouri Training Series

The Role of the ADA and Accommodations in Employment

Thursday, May 22, 2025

1:00 – 2:30pm CST

Registration is required

At this training, you'll learn about the employment provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the implications of the ADA in terms of supporting individuals to become successfully employed, and ensuring individuals understand their rights under the ADA. This session will also look specifically at the reasonable accommodation provisions of the ADA, and how to guide and support an individual through identifying and negotiating job accommodations.

Please email leslie.quarles@umb.edu questions or accommodation requests.

Employment First Missouri, a collaborative between the Division of Developmental Disabilities and the Institute for Community Inclusion at University of Massachusetts-Boston, offers monthly professional development opportunities to facilitate employment support professional training requirements.
