Agenda:

This upcoming virtual training opportunity will be hosted collaboratively by Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) and the Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD). This collaboration is designed to:

- Strengthen the partnership between VR and DDD
- Provide a clear explanation of each agency's employment services
- Clarify roles and provide guidance on how VR and DDD can work together to support individuals
- Provide best practices for collaboration
- Q&A to answer questions

This opportunity for Support Coordinators, Employment Service Providers or other professionals will help align efforts and better support individuals with pursuing their employment pathways.

Presenters:

Kim Buckman, Director of Employment and Community Engagement

Jessica Bloch, Manager of Rehabilitation Services
